As May approaches the thoughts of many Richmonders turn toward the country and toward homes that will soon be opened for the hospitable early summer and late antumn season. Among the members of the smart set in Richmond who take interest in their country homes and gardens, Mrs. Swanson is a leader. Her home, Eldon, is in Pittsylvania county, near Chatham, and is in a state of thrift and bioseom, under her care. Multiplied gocial demands beet her away from Eldon last summer, but the comparative freedom of this will emable her to devote a part of her time, at least to a favorite place of residence. Mr. and Mrs. Egbert G. Leigh, Jr., have a beautiful country home in Orange country, hear Rapidan. One of the show places of Southwest Virginia is the country home of Hon, and Mrs. Henry C. Stunrt. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Williard have their country home. In Fairfax country, the listoric upper section of the State, and Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Cameron spend a blig part of every year at Cameron Louge, located in picturesque Piedmont Virginia, not far from Gordonsville, in Orange courty. "Royal Orchard," In Albanarie, where Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Scott spend their summers, last second as famous as have other homer in the same carty—Allraw, where Mr. and Mrs. Royal Cameron and Cameron and the proper layers of the proper in the same carty—Allraw, where Mr. and Mrs. Gorge Lee Mason, Mrs. Mason being before her marriage Miss Sophy White, of Richmond.

Mr. John P. Branch has a summer cottage at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, his country home proper being in Dutchess, county, New York. The country home of Celonel W. H. Palmer, where he and Alr, and Mrs. Ormond Young will no a little later, is near Christiansburg, and commands one of the finest stretches of scenery to be found in Virginia, Colonel A. S. Buford and Mrs. Hobson have country blaces on the upper James, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan will open their country homes inmediately around Richmond, including Minborya Farm, Meadow Brook and Maymont, are gay in their spring dress
